

Garden End of the Year Survey for Educators and Volunteers

1. What subjects did you teach through the garden program:

- Science
- English
- Math
- History
- Social Studies
- Health and Nutrition
- Art
- Physical Education
- Technology
- Other, list:

2. What curriculum books or activity guides did you use? _____

3. Did you connect your garden lessons to your required curriculum? _____

4. What non-academic topics were taught through the garden program:

- Community service
- Leadership Training
- Character Development
- Intra/Interpersonal Relations
- Team Building
- Intergenerational Connections/Mentor Programs
- Other, list:

5. What percentage of your time in the garden was spent on the following types of instructional techniques:

- % Lecture
- % Independent Learning
- % Student-led Investigations/Hands-on Activities
- % Educator-led Investigations/Hands-on Activities
- % Collaborative Project Work

6. Did you witness improvements in any of the following characteristics:

- Improvements in scholastic achievement
- Improvements in attitude towards school
- Improvements in environmental attitudes
- Improvements in nutritional attitudes
- Improvements in social skills
- Improvements in self-confidence
- Improvements in community spirit
- Improvements in leadership skills
- Improvements in volunteerism
- Improvement in motor skills
- Other, list:

7. What evidence do you have of garden program effectiveness:

- Positive comments from students
- Positive comments from family members
- Positive comments from administrators
- Positive comments from volunteers or community members
- Positive survey results
- Improvement in test scores
- Decrease in disciplinary actions
- Improvement in attendance rates
- Other, list:

8. Did your students have the chance to eat fruits or vegetables from the garden? _____

9. Did you notice any changes in their attitudes toward fruits and vegetables?

- Significant Positive Change
- Moderate Positive Change
- No Change
- Moderate Negative Change
- Significant Negative Change

10. Did you notice any changes in their consumption of fruits and vegetables

- High increase
- Moderate increase
- Low increase
- No change
- Decrease

11. Please share any additional thoughts you have about the impact of the garden program. Include student quotes or stories if available.

12. What parts of the garden program do you want to see continued for next year?

13. Please list any suggestions or ideas for improvement you have for next garden season:
